No visit to Buenos Aires is complete without experiencing a „Parilla“, the Argentinian version of a steakhouse. Don Julio is the perfect place for that, a real heaven for meat and wine lovers.

PARILLA DON JULIO

UPTOWN

Arévalo, 2030
www.uptownba.com

This subterranean Cocktail bar in Palermo Hollywood is set in a replica of New York's Bronx subway station. A great place to start the night out in Palermo...

SEE / DO

PALACIO BAROLO

Avenida de Mayo, 1370

A Buenos Aires landmark, this palace, completed in 1923, was designed by Italian architect Mario Palanti in accordance with the cosmology of Dante's „Divina Commedia“. A must see with great views of the city.

RESERVA ECOLOGICA

Reserva Ecológica de Buenos Aires

Buenos Aires' answer to NY's Central Park, this large recreational area has had a chequered life: from waterfront playground to landfill site. But now it really is a place of peace and beauty.

DELTA DEL TIGRE

Get there: Mitre train from Retiro station in downtown BA

Less than an hour by train from central Buenos Aires lies a watery world of islands and little rivers, perfect for exploring by kayak. The neoclassical Tigre Art museum is also worth visiting.

SHOP / SPORTS / RELAX

GALERIAS PACIFICO

Avenida Córdoba, 550
www.galeriaspacifico.com.ar

The stunning Beaux-Arts architecture of this shopping mall with its frescos in the central hall provides an unusual backdrop for shopping international as well as Argentinian brands.
